STORMY CAREER OF LA FOLLETTE ENDS IN PEACE

LA FOLLETTE, WASHINGTON.—Senator LaFollette was buried Monday in Madison, Wis., his home city, after funeral services in the state capitol.

At Peace World.—WASHINGTON. — Senator LaFollette's last clear words voiced his feeling that he was dying and leaving things undone that he wanted to do.

Calling his son, Robert, to his bedside during his last hours he said: "I am at peace with all the world but there is a lot of work I could still do. I don't know how the people will feel toward me, but I shall take to the grave my love for them which has sustained me through life."

WASHINGTON.—Senator Robert M. LaFollette, for many years a stormy petrel of American politics, died here.

Death resulted from heart failure, induced by a general breakdown and an attack of bronchial asthma.

The Wisconsin senator and late independent presidential candidate began failing in health even before the 1924 campaign. Several weeks ago he contracted a serious cold which developed into asthma. His heart, which had been unable to stand the strain, gave way during the night and he sank rapidly after daylight. He was 70 years old last Sunday.

Although they realized the seriousness of Senator LaFollette's condition, members of his family had hoped until today that he would recover. Last night his physicians said he was resting easy but nevertheless he took a quick and decided turn for the worse in the night hours and hope was abandoned.

Senator LaFollette long was a victim of angina pectoris, a heart ailment, and this, with his asthmatic attack, caused him to suffer greatly from shortness of breath. Violent coughing spells accompanied his illness.

To the last, however, he insisted on cheerful reports being given out as to his illness and it was not until yesterday that it was admitted that his condition was serious.

His condition took a decided turn for the worse this morning.

At 10 a. m. Friday his physicians issued this statement: "Senator LaFollette is decidedly worse. He has decided symptoms of heart failure."

At 10:35 a second bulletin stated that his condition was "more grave."

During the morning Senator LaFollette remained conscious, but he had great difficulty in speaking. All the members of his immediate family were at the bedside.

Robert Marion LaFollette, considered one of the most powerful orators of his time in the United States senate, was a storm center of personal and political controversy throughout the nation and in his home state of Wisconsin for more than quarter of a century.

"Fighting Bob," the name by which he was known to political friends and enemies alike, was a title well earned almost from the moment he stepped into the political arena when scarcely more than a boy.

Facing battles such as few if any of his political contemporaries were compelled to fight, he eventually became a representative in congress, then governor of Wisconsin, and finally United States senator. He served three terms in the house, three as governor of Wisconsin, and was four times elected to the senate.

Perhaps few American public men ever drew such bitter criticism as was heaped upon Senator LaFollette during and immediately after the world war, and certainly none could have been more staunchly defended by his friends. His speeches and public policies had been the target for wide-spread denunciation previous to 1917, while the great conflict was raging in Europe but the crisis came when he voted against America entering the struggle when the Lusitania outrage and other violations of our neutrality were still burning in the public mind.

SCHOOL TRUSTEES BEING NAMED TODAY—An election for special school tax district No. 1, St. Cloud, is being held in the city today to name three trustees to serve for two years and to decide the amount of millage to be assessed for the next two years in this district.

There are three candidates on the ballot, three to be elected, but Mr. A. E. Cowger has declined to serve if elected, and friends of James Marsh were advocating his selection to serve instead of Mr. Cowger. The other two candidates whose names are on the ballot are James Sage and J. F. Daniels.

The election is being held in the city hall.

Work is being done this week on hard surfacing along the Rail Road from Penn. Ave. to Fla. Ave., where by it will give the trucks more room in unloading the cars. This will give nine hundred feet of unloading space along the rail road track and will make it much more convenient than it has been heretofore.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS COMPLETE SESSION FOR EQUALIZATION; ACCEPTING BARBERS' BOOKS.

Monday morning the County Commissioners met at the court house in Kissimmee to consider the tax assessment roll for 1925 taxes, as presented by County Tax Assessor W. I. Barber, and to make any corrections that might be found necessary. Notice was given that the Board would hear any property owner that had complaints about their assessments, but there were but few to appear, and those complaints made were soon adjusted satisfactorily.

The notice issued stated that the Commissioners would be in session from day to day until the work was completed, but every one was heard Monday that appeared and the entire work of revisiting or checking the books for approval was completed in the one day and adjournment taken until the next regular meeting to be held on Monday, July 6.

There was considerable increase in the assessed valuations for this year, due to the many new homes erected throughout the county and the hundreds of acres of new groves that have come into bearing and have been planted as well as the many new acres of farms under development.

JOHN BAILEY TO HAVE MODERN OFFICE; HAS FINE HAND PAINTED COUNTY MAP

John F. Bailey is preparing to have the finest realtors office in St. Cloud having ordered six new desks manufactured by the Florida Truck Body Mfg. Co., Daniels and George, St. Cloud, together with other fixtures to fit out the office.

One of the finest maps ever produced of Osceola County is a large hand painted map made by airplane, showing all the lakes and towns in detail. This is a valuable addition to his office equipment.

Mr. Bailey is a believer in advertising, and says that it pays to use the Tribune's columns. Every week he has some good offerings and has been very busy meeting the demands of newcomers for homes, farms and groves in this section of the county.

Two large electric signs have been ordered by Mr. Bailey for night display at his office.

NEW MAPS FOR ST. CLOUD

The regular weekly meeting of the Chamber of Commerce was held yesterday in the Chamber of Commerce room located on tenth street when several matters of interest were discussed. A large membership was present with Pres. Wm. Landis presiding. Minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved after which Secretary G. C. Outlaw stated that Mr. W. G. King of this city had a large number of new maps made of St. Cloud and thought it was a good way of advertising the city.

The matter was submitted to the advertising committee and will be decided upon in the next meeting.

Secretary Outlaw read a letter which he had received from the Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce in Melbourne inviting St. Cloud to take part in the Pageant which will be held there July 2, 4 and 6th. After some discussion it was decided it was too late to take an active part but it is expected that a large delegation will go there for the Pageant.

Vice President T. G. Moore stated that the East Lake Club House will be open to the public on the fourth of July and any one wishing to enjoy its privileges may do so.

C. C. Pike of the advertising committee stated that the folders had been received and now were ready for distribution and any one wishing to send some north may obtain them at the Chamber of Commerce room at any time.

A. L. Barlow, of the road committee, stated that he had been to Melbourne within the past week and the road was improving and workmen are busy every day.

As there was no further business the meeting adjourned.

ST. CLOUD SCHOOL IS RATED SENIOR "A" HIGH

A recent letter from State Superintendent of Public Instruction W. S. Clayton addressed to Sam Brammar, County Superintendent, brings the good news that the High Schools of the County have been accredited for the 1924-1925 school years as follows: Kissimmee -A Senior, St. Cloud -A Senior. The County can be justly proud of the records established by the schools and efforts will be made to maintain these high standards.

With the completion of the new school building at Holopaw this spring the Holopaw school was issued a certificate of standardization as a rural school by State Rural School Inspector R. F. Geiger.

The Teachers examinations were held in this County on June 4th, 5th and 6th at the County Court House, there being 15 teachers seeking certificates and one applicant (Miss Marie Louise Snodgrass of Kissimmee) for the State Scholarship. There are over two hundred applications on file from teachers seeking appointment to positions on the County force.

Wednesday L. S. Greene, State Director of Vocational Training in conference with County Superintendent Sam Brammar, advised of the addition to the course of study under the Smith-Hughes work in St. Cloud that of secretarial and commercial classes.

This gives St. Cloud another valued addition to the already high standard of studies carried out in our high school, and with one exception gives the students here the benefit of the full Smith-Hughes courses given by Federal aid.

A new class is being formed for the business course now in progress, some of those that have been in the class having about finished their courses in the past few weeks.

These classes are open to every resident of the city and there is no charge.

BAPTIST CHURCH NOTES (Rev. Bert Aichison, Pastor)

The pastor was away from the field all of last week and over Sunday holding meeting at Holopaw and as a result a new Baptist Church was organized with 20 members and with the prospect of having 35 more names added to the list in the near future as 62 Baptists were found living there. During the absence of the pastor, Mr. W. H. Hillman taught the Whosoever-Will Bible Class, Rev. Zwingli Smith preached at the morning service on Sunday and the R. Y. P. U. had charge of the evening service, this was something new for the young people but from all reports they put on a fine program and one that was greatly appreciated by all present.

The Pastor will preach next Sunday morning and evening, the congregation uniting with the other churches of the city for the city for the evening service which will be held in the G. A. R. Hall at 8 P. M. (Note Change from 7:30).

The contractor is now busy at work on our new building. It has taken us a long time to get started but it takes money to build but as everybody is coming to the rescue and the work is going on. Anyone desiring to make some gift toward this worthy cause please see the pastor or Mr. W. G. Wood who is treasurer of the Building fund. We feel that many in the community will be glad to help for in the building up of our churches we are laying the right foundation of the building up of our city.

The Lesson for the Whosoever-Will Bible class for next Sunday will be the 14th Chapter of John.

This is picnic week for the Sunday school which will be held at Alligator Lake. Mrs. F. Lang is the faithful S. S. Superintendent and is working hard to build up the work of the school. Mr. R. B. Steinwinder is teacher of the Young Peoples' Class which is one of the strong classes of the school.

City Commission Completing Details For Sale of Half Million Bonds Next Thursday—Plan To Deliver Bonds in Blocks As Work Requires Funds.

From the large number of enquiries received by the City Manager for information concerning the proposed sale of the $500,000 bond issue recently voted in St. Cloud, there will be some lively bidding next Tuesday when the Commissioners meet to open bids for the bonds.

Final details of the bond issue are being rapidly worked out by the City Commission, and at last night's meeting the city attorney was instructed to have ready the opinion of John Thompson Co., of New York, bond attorneys, as to the validity of all the proceedings, so that the opinion may be had by the prospective purchasers. Proper resolutions and ordinances have been passed to handle the funds when the sale is completed, one of the important ones being the selection of a depository or depositories for the funds while the money is being spent.

A financial report and statistics about the city was prepared several days ago from the city records and printed in folders form to be sent to the bond houses calling for information, bids blanks and bond proposals will be ready for the buyers when they arrive, and blank applications for bonds desiring to become depositories have been prepared.

Specifications for the work will be ready at an early date for bidders on the construction of the water, sewer and other contracts to be let under the bond issue. The ordinance regarding the handling of the funds is as follows:

ILION MAN ENDS LIFE BY SENDING BULLET THROUGH HIS SKULL

ILION, June 17.—Dependent over falling health, Col. James A. Palmer, 79, ended his life Wednesday afternoon by shooting himself through the occipital portion of the head with a bullet from a .22 caliber pistol.

About 7:30 a passerby using the path that leads from Cottage Street to East State Street just west of the property of the Utica Gas & Electric Company, found his body. He was in sitting posture, in one hand holding the revolver and in the other a cane. He had been dead for some time. Dr. E. H. Marion, coroner, and the police department were notified and the body taken to Whittier undertaking rooms.

III After Stroke
Colonel Palmer had been in declining health for some time and last fall suffered a stroke and, dependent over his condition, he tried some time ago to end his life by severing an artery in his wrist, but was unsuccessful. He had been making his home with his niece, Mrs. Garra Ward, 103 East Clark Street.

Colonel Palmer was born at Herkimer, August 4, 1846. He was not quite 18 years old when in the spring of 1864 he enlisted in the Second New York Volunteer Infantry. He was in Company H, the colors company of the regiment. His uncle, Col. Jeremiah Palmer, organized the regiment. Mr. Palmer served in the regiment until the close of the war in 1865. In one of the battles of the regiment he suffered a slight wound in the left hip, but was not incapacitated. He was with Grant's Army at Appomattox at the time of the surrender and secured a piece of the famous apple tree under which Grant and Lee negotiated peace terms. This piece was only as large as one's finger and Mr. Palmer cut off several small pieces for friends before he deposited it in Herkimer for safe keeping. Of the stands of colors carried by the regiment, two are in the Munson-Williams Memorial at Utica and four smaller flags are in the Capitol at Albany. The regiment captured three rebel flags. It was mustered out at Washington and disbanded at Hart's Island.

After the war Mr. Palmer returned to his father's farm, where he was employed for two years. Then he went to work in the gun barrel chambering department of the Remington Armory at Ilion and had lived in the village since. Some years later he was transferred to the Typewriter Works where he served 10 years. Then he was returned to the Armory, where he continued to work until about 1910, when he retired on account of age and infirmity. He had suffered a stroke of paralysis and his hearing was impaired. Since that time he has spent several winters at St. Cloud, Fla.

In Ilion, Mr. Palmer was familiarly known as "Colonel," and everybody knew him and liked him. He was one of the earliest members of Post Chamber 110, and served it as commander one year. He was also a member of the Second New York Heavy Artillery Veteran Association and rarely missed an annual reunion.

But it was on occasion of a public parade that the colonel was in his glory. At every Memorial Day parade he served as grand marshal and no one thought of anyone else in that position. In Labor Day and other parades he was at the head of the column and he was often called to act as grand marshal at other points in the Mohawk Valley. When the Remingtons celebrated the first centennial of the establishment of their arms plant Ilion had the largest parade in its history. There were thousands of men in line and Colonel Palmer was in his usual place, a grand marshal, and although advanced in years, he was equal to all the demands which the position made on him.

Mr. Palmer was a member of Damon Lodge 125, Knights of Pythias and had served it as chapter commander. He was one of the oldest members of Ilion Lodge 400, I. O. O. F., and was one of those who championed the cause when the erection of the Odd Fellows Temple was in contemplation. He served on the committee on site and was chairman of the building committee, and he derived much satisfaction from the fact that he had been permitted to perform this service. Mr. Palmer for many years attended the Baptist Church. He married Mary Jane West who died quite a number of years ago. He is survived by a sister, Mrs. Mary Whipple of Ilion.

DELEGATES BACK FROM LEAGUE INSTITUTE AT MIAMI SATURDAY

Seven delegates from the Epworth League of the Methodist church in St. Cloud returned to their homes last Saturday evening after spending the week in attendance on the League Institute held at Miami from Monday evening to Friday evening of last week.

The St. Cloud delegates were part of the 700 league members from all parts of the state that gathered at Miami for what is reported as the best institute held in the state. Nearly double the number of delegates were in attendance that had been anticipated, and some work had to be done in a hurry by the Miami League commissioners to get everyone placed comfortably for the week's program. Several large houses from St. Petersburg, Tampa, Oldemar, Lakeland and other points passed through St. Cloud on their journey to Miami and were here again on Saturday evening when the delegates arrived home.

NEW BAPTIST CHURCH ORGANIZED AT HOLOWAY
As the result of the Revival meeting held last week by Rev. B. Atchison assisted by Mr. R. R. Steinwender, who had charge of the music, a new Baptist Church was organized with 26 members. There are still 35 more Baptist members living in the town but who have not received their letters from their home church, these too will not doubt come into the newly formed church in the near future. The church will call a Pastor for full-time service immediately. Candidates are now awaiting baptism.

Much interest was manifested on Sunday evening when Rev. Atchison preached on the subject of "Heaven and how to get there." A great number raised their hands for prayer. At the close of the service the following officers were elected: Deacons: Mr. C. M. Walters; Mr. P. E. Patton, and Mr. H. H. Blanchard. For Church Clerk, Mr. M. A. Cook and for Treasurer Mr. W. R. Kelly.

assistant dean; Miss Liody, secretary.

THE CALL OF
THE OUTDOORS

BY WILL H. DILL

Of all the things that have come out with the renewed interest in outdoor recreation in the past few years, I think the outboard motor is the most important single item, and certainly it has made rapid strides in improvement, use, and in popularity.

The little power units may now be found attached to the sterns of boats from Florida to Hudson's Bay. The Indians of Maine and Minnesota have found a way of attaching them to their canoes, and the westerners have devised a special way of packing them on the backs of horses.

The first ones that were made rather crude. They were heavy, and, being single cylinder, they were not very quiet. Not only did they put up quite a racket, so that you had to shout to your companion, but they vibrated the boat so you had to hold your head in your hands if you wanted to look at him. Now it is all changed. The little motors are made in two cylinders, and vibration and noise, as well as excess weight, have been eliminated.
I was amazed at an incident related to me by a Minnesota friend of mine

the other day. He and a companion were starting out on a canoe trip into the forest along the Canadian boundary. They were traveling, of course, by hand power. They were of the type that wants to really get back to Nature, frowning on modern improvements.

A few miles up the first lake, just as it was beginning to get wild, they heard a much hated sound—the exhaust of a gasoline motor. Soon a canoe came round a bend. In it was an Indian. He was sitting at his ease, letting the invention of the white man drive him over the water, while the white men were bending their backs to the paddle in imitation of the Indian. The Indian made a grimace at them as he passed—he wiggled his fingers, in fact, and laughed at them.

The coming of the outboard motor has brought out a whole flock of special boats. You can get boats made especially for the outboard, and come especially made, too. It is a motor of a thousand uses, either on a special craft or on any other. It drives house-boats and canoes, and I have seen one propelling a boat that was towing a big raft of logs in northern Wisconsin.

If fits on the running board of the car, and with it, surely, the whole of the outdoors has been opened up to the gasoline machines of the modern American. The rattle of the motor, this is one use of the motor of which I do not may not sound good in the wilderness and approve. But it has opened up a wealth of water travel near civilization.

BAMBOO GROVE
IS SUGGESTED
AS PROFITABLECROP CAN BE PUT TO OTHER
USE THAN FISHING POLES,
U. S. BUREAU LEARNS

GAINESVILLE, June 18.—The fact that making fishing poles is not the only use to which bamboo can be put is forcibly brought out a recent publication of the United States department of agriculture, just received at the State College of Agriculture. The publication, which is department bulletin 1529, will be of interest to Floridians, and can be obtained from the United States department of agriculture.

It is no longer possible to import bamboo, it is stated in this connection, due to the danger of foreign insect pests.

In the past 25 years the office of foreign seed and plant introduction has imported more than sixty different kinds of bamboo for study and possible adaptation to growing in this country.

The department of agriculture suggests that bamboo groves of one acre or more might prove profitable in Florida. In the course of a few years

With our latest breath we shall extol the wonders of Florida's summer climate. Let those who will journey to the mountains for a breath of cooling air. tempted to thapsodize incoherently on the subject.

Well do we remember summers in the Middle West when sun baked streets reflected a withering heat that left one limp and undone, and sultry, breathless nights banished sleep until exhaustion claimed us for a few fitful hours of tossing slumber. For days at a time, until a merciful rain would bring temporary relief, everyone suffered the most intense discomfort. Heat prostrations were frequent. The thermometer rose to dizzy heights. Whatever business went on was a reflex activity, more or less. All who could get away decamped for a brief sojourn to some other spot where fancy pictured conditions more favorable. We have no special hankering for the "good old summer time" which was always so welcome in advance as a change from cold winters, but which, when it actually arrived, soon wore out its welcome.

Paradises throughout the summer months are the unsolicited subjects of much kind and well meant solicitude from Northerners who think of this southernmost section as a fairly disguised Gehenna, where life is endurable only for those who learn to withstand intense waves of constant tropical heat. No popular delusion has a flimsier base. Florida is not only livable in the summer, but it is a delightful place to be, especially along the seashore. Heat prostrations are unknown. One can always count on a cool ocean breeze, which guarantees refreshing sleep at night and plenty of comfort during the day time. A study of temperature records throughout the country during the height of the summer will disclose the fact that Miami and Palm Beach are appreciably cooler than most Northern cities. For the past twenty-four years ninety-six has been the maximum in Miami for one day only. The average is but slightly above eighty for the summer months.

Everyone knows, or is rapidly coming to know, what Florida winters are like. Comparatively few understand how amazingly pleasant the summers are. Here is a tangible asset of enormous advertising value which has not yet been sufficiently capitalized. Florida promoters have been too busy telling the world the fascinating story of America's winter playground to give the proper emphasis to an equally enticing summer climate. After all, one thing at a time is a sound principle to adopt. These remarkable summers will come in for their share of attention later on. Then Florida will become what it is truly entitled to be, a year-round resort state for hundreds of thousands who know it now only as a winter playground for the idle rich.

are very appetizing when they are fresh—as ours are. It is wasted energy to heat up the house these hot afternoons in cooking boiled or baked meats when you can get such whole some cold-cuts here.

Try some of our wonder hum and special summer sausages—garnished with lettuce and tomatoes—and tipped with rich, cold, creamy salad dressing. They can't be beat.

FLORIDA MAY SUPPLANT CALIFORNIA AS MOVIE CENTER OF WORLD

WASHINGTON, June 18.—Hollywood, home of the motion picture industry, may have to tear down its mythical cities of cardboard, pack up its movie scenery and move to Florida, if the Humboldt Current continues to misbehave, it was declared here recently by scientists.

Hollywood probably never heard of the Humboldt Current, but it is the flow of this stream of cold water along the South American and Pacific coasts which has been responsible for unbroken days of sunshine, colorless skies and other atmospheric conditions favorable to the "shooting" of motion pictures in that particular spot.
